

Package Manager – PMS/BMS/Busbar – Netherlands

Oradeo are currently recruiting for a Package Manager – PMS/BMS/Busbar to work on a Data Centre in the Netherlands.

Role and responsibilities:

- Prepare of reports and front-end studies including capital cost estimates, project schedules, material take off's and out to tender schedules.
- Prepare of technical and contract documentation for issue and analyzing returned tenders.
- Keeping up to date the delivery schedule to control deliveries.
- Seeking to clarify queries with the Design team through the request for information (RFI) system.
- Preparing method statements and risk assessments for production activities.
- Carrying out Quality Control through inspections and snagging.
- Carrying out document control, recording & transmitting information.
- Liaising and coordinating with clients, design team and contractors on technical and commercial issues.
- Taking responsibility for health and safety on site and leading by example.
- Supervising construction activities, organizing workers plant, machinery and materials.
- Coordinates with other crafts working on a job site to ensure smooth transitions along with Identifying materials and equipment that may be required.
- Ensuring construction is carried out accurately, following plans and specifications.
- Conducts quality control inspections on and off project sites.
- Ensuring that contractor activities are properly coordinated.
- Ensuring that tasks are completed on time and to the required quality standards.
- Analyses and quickly resolves any work problems and may arise and ensures that all deficiencies on any given project are corrected in a timely manner.
- Ensuring handover documentation is presented in a specific format and timelines.
- Maintaining detailed and accurate site reports.
- Communicating project progress to key stakeholders, such as the client, architects, engineers.
- All other reasonable tasks assigned to you from time to time from your manager.

Experience Required:

- 7 plus years experience in a supervisory role or engineering.

- Ability to manage subcontractors.
- Technical Understanding of PMS/BMS/Busbar systems
- Proactive people management.